Branding of SNPET - Through the eyes and experiences of its Key Stakeholders

What the STUDENTS say about the SNPET...

1. Midhat Fazal Class of 2014.

"I am currently away from Sanjan Nagar for a one year program in USA under iEARN/YES student exchange; although at Sanjan Nagar I was grade 9th student here I am placed in grade 11! This could not have been possible without the grooming I received in Sanjan Nagar in academics, tolerance, respect for all and passion to learn"

2. Attiya Anwar Class of 2007.

"Sanjan Nagar has been my home a nurturing nursery for critical thinking, creativity and values of a good citizen; after 12 years at Sanjan Nagar and 4 years of a double degree in science and education I am proudly teaching my next generation at the same school; I have indeed come a full circle"

3. Saba Ali Class of 2008

"It has taught me to sing, excel in sports and expression – as I am completing my final year of medicine at Fatima Jinnah Medical College Lahore I keep thinking of how I shall craft my giving back to the school which was an extended home! So proud to be a Sanjan Nagarian! "

4 . Saba Sheikh – A Journey with No Looking Back!

“My name is Saba Sheikh. I have recently done my intermediate from Sanjan Nagar Public Education Higher Secondary School. I have seen many people in life, fighting to attain good opportunities which could help them in making their future better and bright but not all of them succeed in doing so. My school, Sanjan Nagar, is the first and last institute I ever have been to so far in my life and is truly the only hope in my life as well.

A single institute cannot provide all these facilities but I have been fortunate to be associated with Sanjan Nagar. It has been a journey with no looking back but ahead so far. I have participated in many competitions and have won certificates and shields which always make me and my parents feel proud of”.

5. Sadia Khan’s Transformation through Education

Sadia Khan’s Transformation through Education- Class of 2006

Calling myself revolutionary wouldn’t be an exaggeration for me, it is the quality of Sanjan Nagar. The world around me changed and the clouds of illiteracy withered away. Sanjan Nagar sparkled like a diamond in the sky, its rays penetrated me, its warm and gentle arms held me like my mother through my entire journey of learning.

– Sadia Khan’s family hails from Swat . Her family village is in Matta, Swat; she has just graduated with a double degree BA. B.Ed

6. Sarah Wazir – Sanjan Nagar, a School of Great Dignity

Sanjan Nagar a school of great dignity and good organization, a place for intellectuals, helped me a lot in searching “who I am”.

I Sarah Wazir entered into Sanjan Nagar as a student of 11th grade. I learned the honesty, hard work, self-sufficiency and with the guidance of my respected teachers. I was always treated well by my teachers and principal. They directed me at every step. I can say very confidently that Sanjan Nagar polished my hidden skills.

7. A Mother’s Views about the Sanjan Nagar Experience 2012

“There was a huge difference like the difference between earth and sky. If I put them in common schools then they won’t have what they have now even with the fee..

The children of this school have everything. They are confident that they can answer any question even if they have not read from a book. They talk with openness. Children talk about their rights. We are happy but sometimes others (like my in laws) complain. My daughters say ‘We are taught to speak for our rights”.

8. Head Teacher, Ms. Raheela Akram

I have been fortunate enough to work with a unique institution imparting quality education. For replicating SNPET has always been a demand of the parents .We need a complete package and a complete plan step wise which is thoughtfully designed and is aligned to the mission so that we don’t lose its quality and basic essence and philosophy and I would love be a part of its core team to replicate SNPET with all the financial and administrative support.
